1 RE COM MAIL

Dear Mom;

Haven't heard from you for quite some time but I am not too impatient, I realize that soon I'll receive some mail and then my mind will once again be at ease.

Hope with all my heart that every thing at home is alright and that you Mom are in the best of health. I mentioned in a previous letter that I would like to have a picture of you folks at home. Hope that you are complying with my wish because after all you are my family and I would like to see if any of you have changed.

You know Mom, it takes something like what I am going thru here to appreciate the things that one has always taken for granted. To say that I don't miss you and the folks would be to lie. I miss your smile and the way you used to call me "toots". At times I picture you walking and then I know where I get my long stride and the ability to walk without effort. Don't get me wrong Mom, I don't cry myself to sleep or walk around with a long face feeling blue. I'm beyond all that now. I have learned to control my emotions so that part is easy. The only emotion I feel is hate, I hate for the dirty savages who are the cause of disrupting all the happiness and serenity that was prevalent in our home and all the other homes.

That and the fact that so far I have been unable to do anything about it has caused me considerable mental strain. You of all people Mom know that I'm ~~know~~ no flag waver ~~am~~ am I in a patriotic mood.
All I wish for is the chance to repay those Jap b—ds for all the time and happiness that not only I but all the others have had to forego because they tried to change Destiny. May God grant my wish and the wishes of my fellow Marines.

That's all for now, give my love and best wishes to Mom and Eddie, as for the children, tho I am thousands of miles away I pray that God may convey all the tender and affectionate love that I have for them.

Your Son
George
